1. Description

Freeport 9 is very nearly the only human population for hundreds of light years in every direction -- which is exactly the way the Zoners like it. Despite its location in a system filled with strange nebula and forbidding blach crystal, however, Freeport 9 is a frequent stop for especially the Corsairs criminal organisation to buy food from the Freeport 's biodomes, while Cryer Pharmaceuticals has shown an intense interest in the Alien Organisms that colonize many of the asteroids in the System
