1. Description:

The wreck of a Rheinland "Valkyre"-class fighter registered as the Eisenstein. This fighter was assigned to the Rheinland fleet that ventured into Altair. As well as the freighter it escorted, Munificent, Eisenstein escaped from the onslaught. The hull of the fighter also has signs of "Coalition Gatling" impacts. The log files are less corrupted, and it appears that after Munificent was destroyed, Eisenstein used a cloaking device, but it ran out of power, dooming the ship. There still may be equipment left onboard, but its escape pod, though, is nowhere to be seen.
