This System once was home for an old race we named as the "Ancient", who lived here several thousand years ago. Their civilisation reached a similar evolutionary state to that of Humans, but their technical capabilities it seems were a little higher. They were able to build automatic ships which showed strong signs of being capability of flying in hyperspace and, it seems, could be a direct reason for their abrupt and violent extinction caused by the Nomads. At present, this System is still guarded by an automatic defense system represented by the Ancient Drones which are deadly robotic machines.

It was the Order which first found access to this System and started undercover exploration under the GMG tag. Knowledge found here has not only open new possibilities for interspace travel, but could be one reason why Humans had a chance to survive as a free race in the Milky Way Galaxy.
