Neophobos is a System heavily influenced by the Bretonian military who support the Alliance Star Fleet. Visitors here should be warned that numerous areas outside of the trade lanes are filled by deadly minefields. These minefields, together with Battleship Pollux being positioned near to the entry from the X-3043 System, should assure safe passage for transports for Planet Tobruk and also any military ships heading to the local prison station. However, the revelation of previously unknown jump-holes in the System, has increased the presence of common criminals (mostly Corsairs) considerably.
