1. Ship Info-card

Another ship from the P-7-series, the Marten is the weakest, but also the fastest. The Marten is not built for heavy combat but is rather a reconnaissance ship designed for speed. Like the animal it derives it's name from, it's a ship that best operates under cover of darkness and stealth. If caught behind enemy lines it can deliver a good fight, but will not serve the pilot very good against numerous enemies.
