The Battleship Missouri is the flagship of the Liberty Navy. The Missouri has state-of-the-art-weaponry and is constructed around a unique triple-hulled design that incorporates integrated armor plating. The armor plating is specially manufactured in the Norfolk Shipyards for the Liberty Navy using a classified, proprietary process. The Missouri has not yet seen action in any major conflict, but its presence serves as both a warning and a reminder to those who visit the New York system of the indomitable Liberty spirit. Captain Wendi White currently commands the Missouri.
