1. Description

The Ring is probably the most recognizable symbol of Rheinland and a source of great pride among its people. Originally a loose amalgamation of shipyards, habitats, manufacturing centers and smelting plants built to support the first great push into space from the surface of Planet New Berlin, the structures soon merged into the shape from which its name is derived. The Ring is now a single, massive complex that produces vital components in Rheinland industry. Part of this orbital structure is also Rheinland Military owned Oder Shipyard.
