1. Description

Settled shortly after Shogun base as a temple and a school for the Sect (emperor's secret intelligence organization keeping the balance between Kusari families), Nagara Outpost was used by Royal Guard and kept secret for a long time after the power shifts in Kusari. It was lately transformed in a weapon laboratory during the Nomad war. The Orderscientists developed first version of the advanced champion shield using diamond deposits from the mining field that surrounds Hiruga star, not far from the station.
