1. Description

This is the Red Hessians stronghold in the system of their origin. Experienced miners they still are, they carved it out of one of the biggest asteroid of the system, found in a dense and only for the best of scanners penetrable gas cloud. Due to nearby and over the system spread jump holes they are able to reach easily every place in Rheinland to conduct their illegal business. It is their main hub for distributing their share of the systems richness as well as the excellent weaponry they sport to their other bases.
