1. Description

On the locked down war for control over this system, this is the Red Hessians fortress to guard the jumphole to Rheinland controlled space against Corsairs infiltration, what they do quite effectively. But its forces are just enough for that and maintaining a line of gun platforms and too weak to be decisive in the outright war against the Corsairs. Due to this front-line situation the living conditions on Ronneburg Base are at best to be called harsh.
